Dear Sir or Madam,

I am transmitting, for your information and attention, as necessary, the enclosed letter from the sister of FCM Carswell inmate Jennie Lemay regarding her cancer treatment. Ms. Lemay was convicted and sentenced in a criminal matter before me, United States v. Lemay, 14 CR 189 (E.D.N.Y.).

Please feel free to contact my courtroom deputy, Fida Abdallah, at (718) 613-2510, if you have any questions.

—Sincerely

Encl.

To the honorable Judge Chen,

my name is Patti Ellis. My sister was tried in your court. Her name is Jennie Lemay.

I reach out to you for help, as I feel I have no one to turn to.

Jennie has been brought to Texas as the cancer has metastasized. She is scared, alone and dying.

They put a port in 2 weeks before she left Connecticut. She has been in Texas over 3 weeks. They have begun no treatment. Nobody will give us any answers. The doctor in Connecticut said with immediate treatment she has a 20% chance of survival.

I beg of you to reach out and help my sister.
